HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION OF JUNIOR LEAGUES OF AMERICA

The Junior League represents a serious endeavor on the part of young women to become active and constructive factors in the communities in which they live, to be intelligent citizens, and to assist in promoting human welfare. In addition to providing the member with channels of work and training for volunteer service, the Junior League helps her to realize two vital concepts: (1) that she is not an onlooker, but is herself a part of the community; (2) that the community, in turn, is not an isolated unit but part of the nation and of the world.

It was in 1901, at the beginning of a new era for American women, that the first Junior League was organized in New York. At that time Mary Harriman (Mrs. Charles Carey Rumsey) and Nathalie Henderson (Mrs. Joseph Swan) realized what might be achieved if a group of young women were encouraged to take a more active part in some form of active service to their own neighborhoods through the settlement houses and other organizations in existence at the time.

Soon similar organizations to that in New York were formed in various other of the large cities—Boston; Brooklyn; Portland, Ore.; Baltimore; Philadelphia, and Chicago. In the spring of 1912 six of the seven Leagues then in existence held their first national conference in New York City. In 1921 the Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., was founded by the thirty Leagues then in existence. Mrs. Willard Straight (Mrs. Leonard K. Elmhirst) was elected president and a Board of Directors was appointed and instructed to draw up a constitution.

After 1921 the Association grew rapidly until, in 1923, there were sixty-three Leagues. In order to establish a closer contact between the Leagues and the Association, the country was divided into six territories and in each a League member was appointed regional director to act as liaison officer between the Leagues of the region and the Association and to serve on the latter's Board of Directors. Now there are twelve regions, in each of which the Leagues elect every second year a member to serve as their regional director.

At the time the Association was first formed most League activity was in the realm of social work but the Board of Directors, realizing the opportunities which would eventually offer themselves to Junior Leagues, set down in the constitution the social, economic, educational, cultural and civic fields as those in which Junior Leagues should interest their members.

Gradually the Leagues realized that a benevolent "doing for others" was not enough, that they must form a partnership with professional community workers to effect the improvement of conditions. To do this required knowledge. As evidence of this the first course for provisional members was established in 1921 and such a course, which includes an examination of the various forces at work in the community, has been a prerequisite for active membership since 1927. Originally League projects were large enterprises—convalescent homes, day nurseries, curative workshops and the like. It was discovered, however, that to support these undertakings a disproportionate amount of time and energy often was going into money-raising to the exclusion of the educational process of volunteer service. Today where Leagues have projects the recommended type is one in which the demonstration element is present, the choice being based on the needs of the individual community in the light of the interest and money-raising capabilities of the League.

The League's realization of the need for expert guidance in their welfare activities soon led to the establishment of a trained social work staff at the Association's offices. Members of this staff were available for visits to Leagues to study the local situation and give advice. Similar service was then made available for Children's Theatre, Arts, Ways and Means, and Publicity. The Association also publishes the Junior League Magazine, issued monthly to each Junior League member.

HISTORY OF WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

The local League was organized in 1923 and was the 46th League to be admitted to the Association and was the first in North Carolina.

During the first five years the League was active in many projects such as opening a gift shop, sponsoring a pre-natal clinic, opening a Hospital for Incurables, operating a Beauty Parlor and forming a Children's Play Committee.

The next ten years shows that the League was continually expanding into new fields. The Newssheet was begun and a placement system was put into effect. The League also continued operation of the Hospital for Incurables, opened a Rag Market (later the Thrift Shop) and helped organize the Civic Music Association. After the Hospital for Incurables was closed on June 1, 1957, the League assisted in the organization of the Mental Hygiene Society of Winston-Salem. The League also financed a Child Guidance Clinic which opened on November 1, 1937.

The next several years the League continued to sponsor and finance the Child Guidance Clinic. New projects included the Hall of History, presentation by the Junior Programs, Inc., and the bringing to town of four New York Dramas of the Contemporary Theatre Series. The League also joined with other interested community groups in forming the Children's Theatre Board.

In 1941 the League's program of planned expenditure of surplus was begun with $3,000 donated to the Red Cross War Fund, $1,000 given to the Library Fund of the Winston-Salem Teachers College, $5,000 given to the Family Service Agency for the establishment of a Child Placing Agency and $4,500 to the Community Council for the development of the Radio Plan.

In 1942 the Child Guidance Clinic was closed and in 1943 the gift shop was sold.

During the war years the League members devoted the major part of their volunteer service to war-related activities. Support of the Radio Council continued as well as a donation of $1,000 to the Wachovia Historical Society. A survey by Miss Virginia Lee Comer, AJLA Arts Consultant, showed a need for development and expression of the creative arts in our community. In 1945 the beauty parlor was sold. In 1945 the major portion of the League's surplus was donated to the community. The 400 shares of Reynolds B stock was divided as follows: 50 shares to the City-County Hospital, 50 shares to the War Memorial Building Fund, 120 shares to the Mental Hygiene Society and 180 shares to the City Library. The Junior League Hospital Building was deeded to the Winston-Salem Foundation.

The League entered the Cultural field during these years by opening an Arts and Crafts workshop with Mrs. Chester Marsh as director. The League continued its financial support of the Radio Council and put aside $7,200 for the employment of a Community Arts Coordinator when the Arts Council proved its readiness to handle the money. The League also contributed $500 to the Piedmont Festival and sponsored a concert of the newly formed Winston-Salem Civic Orchestra.

In 1947 the city withdrew their support of the Arts and Crafts program and the League assumed the responsibility for the administration, financing and promotion of the workshop.

Support continued to the Symphony and the Piedmont Festival and in 1950 the League released the gift of $7,000 which it had held in trust for the Arts Council. In March of 1952, $3,000 was granted to the workshop and in 1951, the Arts Council established an Arts center and moved in a building owned by the Winston-Salem Foundation. In March the League's financial contribution to the Arts Center was completed through coordination of fund raising for the Arts groups under the Arts Council.

In 1952 the League had as its project the Children's Activities Program at the new City-County Library. The League voted the Library $1,500 for the first year and limited the League's sponsorship to three years. The League also continued support of the Arts Council with a donation of $5,000.

Two art exhibits were sponsored by the League in 1953 and recreational therapy was done in the Children's Wing of the Baptist Hospital. The next year showed the closing of the Thrift Shop and the beginning of our annual Rummage Sale.

In 1955 our three-year activity program for children was completed at the Public Library. The Recreational Therapy program at the Baptist Hospital was enlarged and the League continued to bring outstanding art exhibits to the Library. A new project was begun—providing the salary for a primary education teacher for the handicapped at the Children's Center.

During the next year the League strengthened existing projects and added to those services. An Adult program for the handicapped was begun and the therapy program at the Hospital enlarged.

The Handicapped Adult Program grew rapidly and the Hospital Therapy program was continued. The Cultural Arts Committee arranged a bus trip to Raleigh to tour the State Art Museum and $150 was offered as a purchase prize to the Gallery of Fine Arts in the name of the Junior League. A successful Rummage Sale was held as well as 5 marvelous productions of the play Sleeping Beauty. Attendance at regular meetings hit a new high and night meetings were continued.

In 1957 the League again contributed $5,000 to the Children's Center providing the school with a Kindergarten teacher. An art exhibit drew 3,700 people and the Rummage Sale was a great success. Night meetings were begun for professional members and those unable to attend the morning meeting. Two brochures were printed—one dealing with Admissions policies and the other describing the community activities of the Winston-Salem Junior League.

The League continued to strengthen existing projects in 1958 by donating $2,000 a year for the next two years to provide an aide at the Children's Center, by buying a metal awning for the Pediatric Ward at the Baptist Hospital and by giving $1,155 to the Arts Council.

In 1959-60 the League accepted a new project by voting to pledge $26,000 over a three-year period for the restoration of the Timothy Vogler Home in Old Salem. A vote to establish headquarters in the restored house and a vote for a substantial dues and initiation fee raise were important outgrowths of the visit of Mrs. Robert Dingman, Financial Consultant of A.J.L.A. An exhibit, "Painting in Post War Italy," was opened by the Italian Ambassador, Manlio Brosio, and his wife at a reception. The arts program was further strengthened with a $150.00 purchase prize from the Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts. The League participated in the celebration of Winston-Salem, the All America City, by sponsoring an essay contest in the city school. The Hospital Therapy, Children's Theatre, and the Adult Handicapped programs continued to grow.

ANNUAL REPORTS OF BOARD, 1959 - 1960

WINSTON-SALEM JUNIOR LEAGUE

PRESIDENT — MRS. CHARLES WADE

The Junior League of Winston-Salem has had a year of outstanding accomplishments and one in which each member may take pride and for which she may feel a sense of personal responsibility and contribution. The success of our undertakings this year is the badge of honor of each individual member, for the achievements of the Junior League of Winston-Salem are always your achievements. Each one of you is the strength which enables the League, as an organization, to render service and to stand importantly in this community and world today as an organization that strongly affirms the democratic and Christian way of life. Thus, our basic principles stress the importance of the individual, plus our belief in her integrity, and her capacity for personal growth through service. Since this is your report, we will see slides of the people who helped to make this report possible.

First, you see Sarah Loman, your Vice-President. Sarah served on the Education and Placement Committee, and as Vice President was head of the Professional Members. She held eight meetings on the same day as the morning meetings. The same or similar programs were presented. In October, the Professional Members entertained our Financial Consultant, Mrs. Robert Dingman, at an Open House.

Here we see DeWitt Cordell, our Recording Secretary. DeWitt has recorded minutes for nine regular membership meetings, one call meeting, nine regular board meetings and one call meeting. She, with Emmie Lou Long, is now in the process of compiling the 1960-61 yearbook. DeWitt and Marge Froeber were in charge of the essay contest—"I'm proud to be a citizen of Winston-Salem, the All-America City."

Our all important Treasurer, Jane Hobbs, who with a great deal of finesse ended the year in the black. Jane has paid our bills, and posted the books; she has had the Treasurer's book audited; she has served as Chairman of the Finance Committee—the fruit of their work, the budget, you gave your approval to tonight. She also assisted with the Ways and Means Committee.

Vaughn Owen, our Assistant Treasurer, has checked the roll at each membership meeting, sent bills to absentees for yearly dues and provisional initiation fees. She has served as Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Ann Vance, Public Relations Chairman, and her committee have kept the scrapbook up to date — adding 33 newspaper articles concerning League activities, and 36 articles featuring League members in various phases of community activity. In addition to newspaper coverage, radio and television were used frequently throughout the year to interpret and publicize the League program. In March a most successful luncheon was held at the Twin City Club to honor those people in the community who helped with the League program through the year: 56 attended.

Emmie Lou Long, Corresponding Secretary, has handled all correspondence pertaining to general memberships, transfers, non-residents, and resignations. She reported 14 transfers from the Winston-Salem League, and 12 transfers to Winston-Salem. She made arrangements for all Board and Membership Meetings, kept the membership list up to date for the yearbook and A.J.L.A. records. Emmie Lou and your President, Margaret Wade, were delegates to the Annual Conference held in Victoria.

Sally Ruffin, By-Laws Chairman, and her committee were responsible for studying and composing the changes in regards to the election of the Admissions and Nominating Committees, and the changes brought about by the dues raise.

Sarah Ann Sugg and her committee started their year by designing a Procedure Manual for the Children's Theatre Committee. This Manual received high praise from Charles Avery, the Theatre Consultant. In September they held a workshop for all Provisional Members and interested League members. Hansel and Gretel was presented in November, with 2325 children attending; 93 League members participated in preparing the production, 2 children of League members took the leading roles, and 19 children danced their way to fame as gingerbread children.

Joan Hanes, Cultural Arts Chairman, made possible a bus trip to the State Art Museum in Raleigh to view the Valentiner Memorial Exhibition. A purchase prize of $150 was offered to Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts. The oil painting "Yellow Landscape" was presented to Hanes Junior High School. The Italian Ambassador and Mrs. Brosio opened the Art Exhibit "Painting in Post War Italy" at a reception in their honor.

This year the Chairman of Education and her aids have taken us into many fields of interest. The excellent selection of speakers for both our morning and evening meetings have brought us Mr. James Bogle on "The Berlin Crisis"; Mrs. Arnold Nash "Changing Patterns of Family Life"; Mr. Douglas Carter and Dr. Robert Hanes spoke on specific phases of education; Mrs. Robert Dingman, our Financial Consultant; Mr. Robert Clodfelter, Royall Brown, James Willis, Ed Shepherd and William Hollan conducted a financial panel. Mr. Frank Willingham and Mr. Robert Garvey presented an Old Salem Project, a movie on the San Diego Rummage Sale, and a movie "The Rugged Road to Salem" were shown. The excellent attendance record is proof alone of the high quality of the programs. Mary Ann Parrish, Education Chairman, has edited two Newssheets, the Extra for the Victoria Conference, and the Regional Sheet on the Raleigh Conference — at which she was the voting delegate. In addition to the above, she was Production Manager and Director of the Floor Show presented at the annual dance, and helped with the presenting of the new provisional members. She was the photographer for the slides that you are now viewing.

Mary Williams, Hospital Therapy Chairman, and her eight girls can best be described from a quote from a letter from Mrs. J. R. Andrews, Head Nurse of Pediatrics, Baptist Hospital: "I want to thank each one for your cooperation, your time given to our department, and all the useful toys, chairs, decorations and the many hours of constructive play given to this department. It would be impossible to list all that the members have contributed, and the pleasure and benefits derived from their work." Mary also initiated the summer program of using teenage daughters in the hospital.

Julia Lambeth and her Hospitality Committee have put the fun into our life. They have planned two beautiful luncheons, one with a Fashion Show, an elegant Black and White Formal Dance with a most entertaining floor show, and tonight we will enjoy their hospitality following this meeting.

Through the wisdom and guidance of our Sustaining Representative, Lib Heefner, during the year, we have enjoyed success and pleasure.

The Magazine Committee has been busy as bees. Under Eleanor Vance's guidance The Winston-Salem Story, a comprehensive survey and outline, was compiled of major activities in our program and sent to A.J.L.A. Magazine Editor. Pictures and detail material have been sent on the Poke Easy Club, Rummage Sale, and the Red Shield Girls' Club work. This was done in response to the request from the Magazine Editor.

Emmy Lou Parrish and her committee members can take a great deal of pride in the well-qualified slate of new officers that go into office tonight. The committee was instrumental in having the time of election of the Nominating and Admission Committee changed. The delegates for the Regional Conference and the Lake Placid Conference are also fruits of their efforts.

The League, under Ruth Pepper's guidance, continues to support the recreational program for handicapped adults, The Poke Easy Club, with financial and volunteer aid. Ruth and her committee members have helped have a picnic at Tanglewood with guests from Durham, an ice cream party, a talk on native birds, a musical program, a club birthday party, a weiner roast, a game night and Christmas party. The Poke Easy members also attended the circus, the rodeo, the Winston-Salem Symphony concerts and a Wake Forest basketball game. Ruth told of the handicapped program at Regional Conference.

Here you see Ann Strickland, who not only represents her committee, but also represents you, the entire membership, for you are the ones who have done your volunteer work in the health, welfare, educational, cultural and recreational fields. The Placement Committee is the heart of the League and you will be given the opportunity to read in the yearbook your accomplishments as stated in her annual report. Ann took part on a panel discussion pertaining to staff visits, at Regional Conference.

Next is a slide of Bunja Valk. Bunja and her committee have done a magnificent study of the needs of our community, and after careful and tedious consideration of all possibilities they presented what they thought best for our League membership and the community at this time. To this committee we can all give our sincere thanks for the major accomplishment of the year — the decision to restore the Timothy Vogler House in Old Salem. Through their study, the committee realized that we needed to improve the efficiency and availability of the League to the community. Consequently, the establishment of a Headquarters was approved at our March meeting.

Jane Waugh, Editor of the Newssheet, and her staff have published ten issues of the Newssheet. These issues included special feature articles written by active and sustaining members who were members of the board of directors of organizations outside the League. One of these articles was reprinted in the United Fund Newsletter. The League Log was introduced to inform the membership on changes of status, address, and telephone numbers. This committee has done an excellent job of interpreting and educating the membership on the League and the community.

Tonight you have seen the products of the Provisional Committee. Fourteen girls have successfully completed their course that Jane Clay and her members designed. This course covered important aspects of the League and the community.

Neither rain, sleet, nor snow shall stop this Chairman, her committee, and the entire membership from performing their duty. Katherine Cox has already given you her report tonight, but I'm sure you don't mind being reminded again of the tremendous job she and her committee did. A net profit of $7026, which includes the addition of properties used in the sale. We remember with pride the lovely League models who participated in the Fashion Show sponsored by Montaldo's.

Nineteen girls are living recognition of the work of the Admissions Committee. Marty Hancock and her committee have just presented to you the results of their intensified study, and as you can see, they have made an excellent selection. Marty was a delegate to the Regional Conference in Raleigh.

The transfers have been under the guidance of Johnnie Dunn and her committee. We hope that through the efforts of these girls, the twelve transfers feel at home and a real part of our League.

Bette Benbow, our dollar and sense member was Chairman of the Finance Study Committee. She and her committee, with the help of Charlie Frank Benbow, made a detailed study of our total financial picture — as Winston-Salem stood in relation to the region as far as administrative income and expenses were concerned. In connection with this study, we had a staff visit from Mrs. Robert Dingman, our Financial Consultant, who gave us a much needed shot in the arm to every phase of the League Program and to every member of the League. As a result of Bette's study and Mrs. Dingman's visit, we had a substantial raise in dues and provisional initiation fee.

The first picture of Archer Bennett shows her smiling and pleasant, just as she always was when your President called upon her to do the mountains of secretarial work that had to be done. This picture shows her as she probably felt after she had completed the job of President's Secretary.

You will have to use your imagination, but we just had to show this slide, for it shows our own Katie Bahnson with Governor Hodges at the Regional Conference. We are so very proud of her and the magnificent job that she is doing as Regional Director. Katie was formally elected at the Victoria Annual Conference in May. An invitation has been issued for the Regional Conference to be held in Winston-Salem, Katharine's home League, in January, 1961.

Here is a shot of you, the active, the sustaining, and provisional members. You have done your League placement, your community placement; you have attended the fun activities; you have given of your time, your talents, your material goods, your enthusiasms, your understanding, and your kindness. Let us always remember to keep in mind that the Junior League was created to train us for life-long service to communities, to nations, to peoples everywhere. The growth and the maturing of the individual member is the yardstick by which our League must measure its success.

It has been a privilege to serve as your President. I have enjoyed representing you to other Leagues, in the community and within our organization. It is not possible to express adequately my thanks and appreciation to the Executive Committee, the Board, and the membership for your constant support and co-operation. This is an office in which so much more is received than given. It presents an opportunity for great personal growth, knowledge of one's community and of tremendous importance — the opportunity of knowing so many Junior League members and forming valuable and lasting friendships. My sincere gratitude for this experience.

It is now my happy privilege and honor to present the gavel to your new President, Anne Strickland, under whose leadership the League can look forward to a year of successful progress.

Respectfully submitted,
Margaret P. Wade

VICE-PRESIDENT

The Professional Members of the Junior League met on the same nights as the regular morning meetings. These meetings were also open to any members who were unable to attend the morning meetings. The meetings were held at the Art Gallery, Library, and in homes of some of the members.

The same program or similar programs to the morning meeting were planned. In May Mr. James A. Bogle of Wake Forest spoke on the Soviet Military Policy. In June Mrs. Arnold Nash of Chapel Hill spoke. To start out the Fall program Ann Vance of the Placement Committee spoke in September and answered questions on placement. In October the Professional Members entertained Mrs. Robert E. Dingman of A.J.L.A. at a cocktail party. Mr. Robert Clodfelter spoke on finances at the November meeting. In December, projects were discussed by Bungie Valk, Chairman of the Project Finding Committee. At the February meeting a film on the Rummage Sale of the San Diego League was shown and a discussion followed. In March Mrs. Lamar Northup showed slides on Japan and told of her trip. The average attendance of these meetings was fourteen.

At each meeting the minutes of the morning meetings were discussed. An attendance was taken and reported to the Assistant Treasurer.

I served on the Education Committee and the Placement Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah F. Loman

A classified list of the membership was sent to the Association in April, 1959. The new Provisionals were reported to the Association during April, 1959.

The 1960-1961 Yearbook was compiled with the assistance of the Corresponding Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
DeWitt C. Cordell

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

During the year April 1, 1959 through March 31, 1960, I wrote all letters concerning changes in membership status, sent name and address changes to A.J.L.A., and wrote several letters regarding miscellaneous League business. Two meetings were held to go over our membership list with the Recording Secretary, the Assistant Treasurer, and members of the Newsheet Staff, and several committee chairmen (Transfer, Newsheet, Placement, etc.) were informed when changes occurred.

The following girls transferred their memberships from Winston-Salem to other Leagues: Mrs. Richard E. Mooney to Omaha; Mrs. Rufus Cutting to Montclair; (these two transfers were requested last year but were actually completed in this year's business) Mrs. Barbara Lea to New York; Mrs. William Grossnickle to Greensboro; Mrs. Ben Jones to Washington; Miss Gail Lassiter (provisional) to New York; Mrs. S. L. Gullede to Raleigh; Mrs. O. C. Pennington to Raleigh; Miss Martha Miles to Charlotte; Mrs. James Baynard to Greensboro; Mrs. Thomas Pettigrew to Asheville; Mrs. H. B. Shelton to Durham; Mrs. Edwin A. Joseph to Hampton Roads; Mrs. Warrington L. Williams to Columbia.

The following girls transferred to our League from other Leagues: Mrs. James H. Hillis from Miami; Mrs. Richard Stockton from Jacksonville; Mrs. William H. Jenkins from Wichita; Mrs. Louis Stouse from New Orleans; Mrs. John W. Burress III from Roanoke; Mrs. Gilbert E. Powell, Jr. (provisional) from Greensboro; Mrs. Hugh Kirk Duffield from Spartanburg; Miss Carol Stroud from Greensboro; Mrs. James H. Agee from Rochester; Mrs. George E. Holt, Jr. (provisional) from Greensboro; Mrs. Harold Hoke from High Point; Mrs. Andrew J. Waring from Philadelphia (the Hoke and Waring transfers were on a non-resident basis).

During the year an Inter-League card to the Augusta League was issued to Mrs. Harold Coley, Jr. and then was cancelled a few months later when she returned to Winston-Salem.

Members who have become non-resident this year are as follows: Mrs. John W. Harden, Jr., Chapel Hill; Mrs. Walter Coulson (who was, previously, an Inter-League member), Mill Valley, Calif.; Mrs. David S. Henderson, New Bern; Mrs. R. G. Chatham, Elkin; Miss Alice Eller (Provisional), Atlanta. Miss Sue Moore returned to active membership after having been non-resident.

The following resignations were accepted with regret: Mrs. Strudwick Nash, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Britt Petty, Gastonia; Mrs. Walter Crowther, Frederick, Md.; Mrs. T. J. Michie, Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. Julian Lowe, Winston-Salem; Miss Ida Wilkinson, Blowing Rock; Mrs. Robert Paxton, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Conrad Lemly, Winston-Salem.

Arrangements were made for Board and membership meeting rooms and notices of meetings were sent to all Board members. Our membership list was kept up to date for the Yearbook and A.J.L.A. records and I assisted the Recording Secretary in publication of the '60-'61 Yearbook.

ADULT HANDICAPPED

The Junior League continues to support the recreational program for handicapped adults — the Poke Easy Club — with financial and volunteer aid. The committee does these things each month: plans varied programs with the club president; arranges the meeting places, as members find it interesting to hold their meetings in different locations; plans and purchases refreshments and prizes; and attends the meetings and assists in a variety of ways. The co-sponsor, the City Recreation Dept., types and mails monthly program notices to club members and sends a representative to the meetings when necessary.

This year's activities have included a picnic at Tanglewood with a similar club from Durham as our guests, an ice cream freezing party, an illustrated talk on native birds, a musical program, a club birthday party, a wiener roast, a game night and a Christmas dinner party. The members also attended these local events together (for which tickets were donated): the circus; the rodeo; the Winston-Salem Symphony concerts and a Wake Forest basketball game.

In 1959 Adult Handicapped was changed from a special committee to a standing committee of the League.

In order to acquaint others with our League's participation in this field the chairman conducted a workshop for new committee members, prepared information for the Public Relations and Newssheet committees, wrote at their request, an article for The Junior League Magazine, spoke and showed slides to the provisional members, and spoke to the Regional Conference in Raleigh.

We feel gratified that the members seem to thoroughly enjoy their club meetings. Three members have had perfect attendance since the formation of the club three years ago.

It has been a pleasure to work with the cooperative, enthusiastic members of this year's committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Ruth O'N. Pepper

BY-LAWS COMMITTEE

The following By-Law changes were tabled at the November 1959 meeting and voted on and passed at the December 1959 meeting.

The first change relates to the time members of the Nominating and Admissions Committees are nominated and voted on. These elections were moved up one month earlier to avoid overcrowding the agenda of the annual meeting in April and also to make the time these committees are set up more nearly coincide with the time other committees are being chosen. Therefore, Article VI, Committees, A., Admissions Committee, (c) Election of Committees, which read, "Election of this committee shall be held at the April meeting," now reads, "Election of this committee shall be held at the March meeting." Then in the two paragraphs following, the two references to March were changed to February and the reference to April was changed to March. In the same Article VI, under D, Nominating Committee, the two references to March were changed to February and the reference to April was changed to March.

The second change calls for an eight dollar raise in dues for all members and a fifteen dollar raise in initiation fee for provisional members. Thus, in Article VIII, Financial Arrangements, Section 2, Membership Dues and Fines, the sentence, "All classes of membership shall pay annual dues of not more than $12.00 which shall include the Association dues of $6.50," was changed to read, "All classes of membership shall pay annual dues of not more than $20.00 which shall include the Association dues of $7.00." The sentence, "Provisional members shall pay an initiation fee of $10.00," was changed to "Provisional members shall pay an initiation fee of $25.00."

The last change in the By-Laws is a simple change in wording to expedite the work of the Assistant Treasurer. In the above mentioned Article VIII, Section 2, under A, Payment, the sentence, "Members whose dues and fines are not paid by May 15 will be sent a registered letter," was changed to "Members whose dues and fines are not paid by May 15 will be sent a certified letter."

CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Working with the Children's Theatre Committee has been most rewarding. It is truly an exciting experience to work with a large group of capable and enthusiastic girls.

Our work began in early spring when I chose a Co-Chairman and fifteen heads of committees. Our next step was to design a Procedure Manual which my associate, Mrs. James Hancock, and I prepared to aid all volunteers working with Children's Theatre. Meanwhile, our play readers were busy reading and discussing. After many hours of pouring over numerous plays, the play readers chose three, with Hansel and Gretel their first choice. These were presented to the Children's Theatre Board and approved. The first committee meeting was held in early June where Procedure Manuals were distributed with the previous year's reports and budget was discussed. The play, Hansel and Gretel was mimeographed and distributed in August. Our next meeting was early September when we planned our Children's Theatre Workshop which was held September 24th for provisionals and all interested League members. Tryouts were held September 29th and again on October 16th for understudies. Practices were begun in early October. Our dress rehearsal was held November 9th. Performances were given November 10th through 13th — one performance each of the first two days and two performances each of the last two days — totaling six performances. Two-thousand three hundred twenty-five children attended and ninety-three active Junior League members participated in preparing production. Nineteen children danced their way to fame as gingerbread children. Two very talented children took the leading roles of Hansel and Gretel.

Representing the Junior League on the Winston-Salem Children's Theatre Board were Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Charles Beardsley and the Chairman.

Our many thanks go to the committee chairmen who did a magnificent job of coordinating their ideas and working as a team. Also, our hat is off to the able cast, committee members, sustaining members and all who participated in the Children's Theatre project. My special thanks go to Mrs. James Hancock who so ably shared my responsibility. Working with these girls was not a job but a pleasure.

Sarah Ann Sugg

CULTURAL ARTS

In April, the Cultural Arts Committee sponsored a bus trip to the State Art Museum in Raleigh. About 40 League members and their guests toured the Museum with Mr. Byrnes, Director; Mr. William, curator; and Mr. Stanford, Director of Education, as guides. On view was the Valentinier Memorial Exhibition of paintings and sculpture loaned by friends and associates of Dr. Valentinier and museums with which he had been associated.

A Purchase Prize of $150 was offered to the Winston-Salem Gallery of Fine Arts for their September jury. The prize was awarded to George Cress, chairman of the Art Department at the University of Chattanooga, for his oil painting, "Yellow Landscape." The painting was presented to Hanes Junior High School.

On Sunday, March 6, a reception was held at the Public Library in honour of H. E. The Italian Ambassador and Madame Brosio who opened the exhibit "Painting in Post War Italy." About two hundred people attended the reception. The exhibition was on view from March 7 to April 1 and was staffed by League members. Mimeographed material containing information about the paintings was distributed to all city and county schools. Six League members were trained as guides to take school groups through the exhibit. Cards announcing the exhibit were sent to all civic groups and colleges in the area.

The chairman represented the League at monthly board meetings of the Arts Council and was also asked to serve on the board of the Associated Artists.

I would like to thank all League volunteers who worked on this project, and particularly the members of the committee, for their enthusiasm and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
Joan Hanes

EDUCATION

The Education Committee consisted of fourteen members, including Vice-President, Mrs. Charles Loman, and the Chairman. Mrs. Loman assisted in planning for the programs at the evening meetings.

Two meetings of the entire committee were held during the year to arrange programs for both the regular and the night meetings. These were as follows:

MAY: Mr. James Bogle of the faculty of Wake Forest College gave an interesting presentation of "The Berlin Crisis."

JUNE: Mrs. Arnold Nash, of Chapel Hill, N. C., and a member of the faculty of Bowman Gray School of Medicine, spoke on "Changing Patterns of Family Life."

SEPTEMBER: Mr. Douglas Carter, head of special education in the City Schools, and Dr. Robert Hanes, Junior High coordinator, brought us up to date on these two specific phases of education.

OCTOBER: A.J.L.A. financial consultant, Mrs. Robert Dingman, gave a stimulating talk to the entire League.

NOVEMBER: Mr. Robert C. Clodfelter, a trust officer and an estates planning specialist at Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, moderated a financial panel for women. Representing insurance was Mr. Royall Brown; bonds, Mr. James Willis; real estate, Mr. Ed Shepherd; common stocks, Mr. William Hollan. For the evening meeting, Mr. Clodfelter discussed personal financial planning for women.

DECEMBER: Mr. Frank Willingham and Mr. Robert Garvey made an interesting presentation of the Old Salem project that was under consideration at the time. As Mr. Willingham spoke, Mr. Garvey, a member of the staff of Old Salem, showed slides.

JANUARY: A called meeting was held with a panel to fully explain all phases of the project of Old Salem and the possibility of our restoring the Timothy Vogler House at 909 South Main Street.

JANUARY-FEBRUARY: This regular meeting was held February 2 at which time Mrs. Robert Cox, Rummage Sale

Chairman, had arranged to show a Rummage Sale Movie filmed by the San Diego Junior League.

MARCH: Following through our vote for the Old Salem restoration, a movie filmed by Charles Babcock, Jr., entitled the "Road to Salem" was shown to the membership.

APRIL: Mrs. Charles Wade, retiring president, made her annual report to the League. Slides of Board members and their activities were used to illustrate her report.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Ann P. Parrish

FINANCE

The Finance Committee, composed of the outgoing and incoming Presidents, Treasurers and Assistant Treasurers, met in February to discuss committee requests and to draw up the proposed budget for 1960-1961.

In December the League voted to raise the dues from $12.00 to $20.00, for all members, and to raise the initiation fee for provisionals from $10.00 to $25.00.

The League voted in February to pledge $26,000.00 for the restoration of the Timothy Vogler House in Old Salem; this amount to be paid over a period of three years, ending in 1963, and in March, to establish headquarters and an office in the building. The rent will be $75.00 per month and we would sign a 5-year contract.

The Children's Theatre requested $500.00 to finance the Children's Theatre production again this year; the Cultural Arts Committee requested $500.00, including the $150.00 Purchase Prize. These requests were granted. The League received a $100.00 donation to the Hospital Program and a $25.00 donation to the Children's Theatre, of which we are most appreciative.

HOSPITAL THERAPY

Hospital Therapy commenced its year with a workshop in May for interested teen-age girls. Under the supervision of this committee, these girls worked in the playroom throughout the summer.

With only eight League girls instead of the desired twenty-five to help at the hospital, I regret to say that the playroom program was not as successful as in past years. However, the generosity of League members, in response to our plea for toys and children's furniture, was most gratifying. The medical staff and children were most grateful for the many items which you contributed; such as a TV set, children's tables, chairs, high chairs, books, records, etc. The committee purchased several new record players, outdoor porch furniture, and chairs. The playroom is in the process of being painted and redecorated.

An orientation program was conducted in October for provisional members.

I find myself unable to limit my expression of "thanks" to my committee alone, for without the comforting and encouraging words from fellow Board members, the morale of this committee would have diminished rapidly. Sincere thanks are also extended to the Placement Chairman, for the many hours she spent in an effort to recruit League girls for Hospital Therapy, to the Newsheet committee for their invaluable assistance in promotion of hospital program and its needs, and to the President for her many hours of wise and understanding counseling.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Williams

HOSPITALITY

The Hospitality Committee entertained the Winston-Salem Junior League, June 2, 1959, with a luncheon and fashion show, by Thalhimers, at Old Town Club. The Fashion Show used models from the League, their teen-age daughters, and younger children.

Luncheon was also served after the membership meeting December 2, 1959 at Forsyth Country Club.

The Junior League Dinner Dance was held February 5, 1960, at the Forsyth Country Club. A floor show, which included several members of the League and their husbands, was presented during the intermission.

Light refreshments were served by the Hospitality Committee following the Annual Meeting April 5, 1960, at Forsyth Country Club.

I wish to extend my appreciation to my committee. We've had a wonderful time planning League entertainment.

Julia Lambeth

MAGAZINE

In an effort to give the Junior League Magazine a comprehensive view of our program in Winston-Salem, an outline of our major activities was compiled in October. This was mailed to the editors along with appropriate pictures, brochures, news clippings, and a splendid report on the Adult Handicapped Program, written by Mrs. Vance Pepper.

In January, the Magazine requested more pictures of the "Poke Easy Club," and additional details and photographs of our Rummage Sale and Red Shield Girls Club work. Since volunteer work at the Girls' Club had reached a temporary lull, we promised to send that report when feasible. The other material was sent as quickly as possible; and at this time the articles on the handicapped program and the sale are under consideration for publication.

When the League voted to restore the Timothy Vogler house, news clippings and the editorial concerning the new project were submitted, as were the "All America City" stories. A fine review of Agnew Bahnson's book, "The Stars Are Too High," appeared in the January-February issue.

Throughout the year, announcements of marriages, births, and deaths were submitted. Sincere thanks go to Mrs. John Gallaher, and to all the committee chairmen, whose interest and cooperation made my job a pleasant and rewarding one.

Respectfully submitted,
Eleanor Vance

NEWSHEET

Ten issues of the Newssheet were published during the year 1959-60. This number includes an "Extra" edition which was published in conjunction with the Education Committee to give a complete report of the Annual Conference at Victoria. Six copies of Newssheet were sent to A.J.L.A., one to the Regional Director, others were exchanged with presidents of leagues in Region XIII and their Newssheet editors. A copy was sent to all the advertisers. Two new advertisers were added to the list this year.

Special feature articles were written by active and sustaining members who were members of the board of directors of organizations outside the League. In their articles they further enlightened the League on the work of these organizations.

"League Log" was introduced to keep the membership informed as to the change of status of League members and the changes of addresses and telephone numbers. Articles were written to introduce and welcome new transfers into the League.

It is hoped that through the Newssheet interest in League and community activities may be furthered.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane M. Waugh

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee deviated from its normal procedure in the following instances:

1. The straw ballot was mailed to the membership prior to the November League meeting in an effort to make the ballot a more effective instrument in guiding the committee in choosing the executive officers.
2. A by-law change affecting the time for nominating and voting for members of the Nominating and Admissions Committees was put into effect, as recommended by last year's committee. All nominations for these committees were held in February, and elections in March.
3. Rosters of eligible members to serve on both the Nominating Committee and Admissions Committee were mailed to the active members prior to the February meeting to give more opportunity for serious consideration in making nominations to both committees.

Otherwise, the Nominating Committee carried out all of its duties as outlined in the Manual of Procedure.

I wish for next year's chairman a committee whose members will feel the same sense of individual responsibility as shown by each member of my committee. It has made this year an easy one and a real pleasure.

Respectfully submitted,
Emmy Lou Parrish

PLACEMENT

After plans had been formed by the Placement Committee, agency interviews were conducted to find the volunteer needs in the community. A chart of placement opportunities was then compiled and mailed to each League member before the interviews.

These interviews took place over a two-day period in the home of a League member. In October and again in January, telephone calls were made to each member to determine how the League's obligations to the community were being carried out.

As always, our volunteer program is quite diversified, with interests in the health, welfare, and cultural fields. The following is a summary of the volunteer services given by League members during the year:

Ninety-three girls worked on the Children's Theatre play in some capacity. Ninety-one helped on preparations for the Rummage Sale; and, during the Sale, the membership had almost 100% participation. Working as Art Exhibit hostesses were seventy-four girls; sixteen worked at Old Salem; and eighteen at the Craft House. Eleven members did office work at the Arts Council; and eight were hostesses at the Gallery of Fine Arts.

Forty-five girls helped repair toys at the Toy Shop; five drove for the Golden Age Club; three worked at the Child Guidance Clinic; ten at the Children's Center; eight at the YWCA; and eleven at the Red Cross. Twenty-seven members worked for the Radio-TV Council, and eight helped at the City-County Library. Working with the convalescing children at the Baptist Hospital were twelve girls. Eleven members helped with the Handicapped Adult program. Twelve worked with the Cancer, T.B., and Heart programs; twenty-seven with either the Boy or Girl Scouts; nine at the Red Shield Girls Club; and four at the Associated Family and Child Service Agency.

In addition to the above statistics, the League had forty-nine members serving on one hundred-four community boards. Many other needs in the community were filled by League girls—such as: PTA work, fund drives, church work, and medical auxiliaries.

I would like to express my appreciation to every member of the Placement Committee and to each member of the League for splendid cooperation throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Anne B. Strickland

PROJECT FINDING

The Project Finding Committee began a study of community needs in March, 1959. The six members went on field trips and heard requests from the Y.W.C.A. The Red Shield Girls' Club, The Domestic Relations Court, and The Yoder Home. We felt that none of these requests were specific in terms of a project, and on advice from our A.J.L.A. consultant and certain men in key positions with the County Commissioners, the United Fund, the Winston-Salem Foundation, and Public Welfare, we found it advisable to best serve these agencies through Education and Placement. Financial aid to agencies supported by public funds sometimes confuses their budget, and is difficult to turn back over to the community at the termination of the project.

The Goodwill Industries was considered and tabled for further study after they are housed in their new quarters. It was recommended by the committee that this be the first field of service investigated by the next Project Finding group.

We felt that a project in which the whole League could participate, and one that would be of service both civically and culturally, as well as to better our own interests was the restoration of the Timothy Vogler House for Old Salem. It seemed very important and fitting that at this time, when Old Salem is achieving national recognition (it was one of the points on which our city won its "All America City" award) that the Junior League should have a part in this historic undertaking.

It should be taken into consideration that because of varying interests of our members we have tried to be diversified. This, we believe, has been achieved since the fields of Health, Welfare, Recreation, Culture, and now Civic, are supported by us financially through our aid to The Hospital Therapy, The Adult Handicapped, The Children's Theatre, The Art Exhibits and now The Old Salem Restoration.

The Project was presented to the League at the December meeting by Mr. Frank Willingham. A call meeting was held in January with a qualified panel to answer any questions concerning the execution of this project. The final voting was at the February meeting when the project was passed by a large majority. The sum of $26,000.00 has been pledged to be given for the restoration of the Timothy Vogler House, to be paid by April of 1963.

We have found it very gratifying that our League has been publicly acclaimed in a newspaper editorial for this contribution to the community.

Elizabeth F. Valk

PROVISIONAL

The Provisional Course, planned to cover the entire year, followed the basic outline set forth in the A.J.L.A. Handbook.

Fourteen girls accepted invitations to become Provisional members. One girl transferred to another League and two girls transferred to our League. It was with great pleasure that the Provisional Committee recommended that the girls be taken into active membership in April, 1960. We feel sure that they will make many fine contributions to the League program.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Clay

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The Public Relations Committee was composed of the Chairman, five active members and one sustaining member. Of the five active members, three were chairmen of publicity committees (Children's Theatre, Cultural Arts, and Rummage Sale) in major fields of League activity, and two members assisted the chairman in handling the other work of the committee.

In lieu of a meeting in May, her particular area of responsibility for the year's work was discussed with each member of the committee.

The scrapbook was kept up to date with the addition of thirty-three newspaper articles concerning League activities and thirty-six other articles featuring League members in various phases of community activity. (a copy of an article in LOOK magazine mentioning a local League member was also kept in the scrapbook.)

In addition to newspaper coverage, radio and television were used frequently throughout the year to interpret and publicize the League program.

Announcements of League meetings continued to appear in the Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel on the day prior to the scheduled meeting.

In March, a luncheon was held at the Twin City Club to honor those people in the community who helped with the League program through the year. Seventy-eight guests were invited. Members of the Board and members of the Public Relations Committee served as hostesses to the guests who accepted their invitations. All members of the committee worked on the luncheon arrangements and three meetings were held to plan for it.

I would like to express my appreciation for the fine work and cooperation of each member of this year's Public Relations Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann Pritchett Vance

RUMMAGE SALE

The Junior League Rummage Sale was held at Taylor's Warehouse on March 3, 4, 5th. All marking and sorting was also done at this location.

Sustaining members were contacted during the fall and given boxes to fill with rummage to be picked up later. A truck was also made available for large articles such as furniture, appliances, etc.

Merchants and manufacturers were contacted in January, and their donations were picked up in February.

In November, free rides were given at Kiddie Land (Thruway Shopping Center) for a bundle of rummage.

On February 12, 13th, collection boxes were put in several downtown stores, having been previously promoted by the stores.

On February 9th, the League sponsored a fashion show by Montaldo's with admission being bundles of rummage or household articles.

All marking was done by a committee of 16 full-time and part-time markers, working the equivalent of 4 hours per day for 3½ weeks. Every active and provisional member was required to work 4½ hours during the sale.

At the conclusion of the sale all merchandise that had not been sold was given to Goodwill Industries.

Letters of thanks were sent to all merchants and manufacturers who had donated merchandise and properties, and to those who had given of their time and services.

The total sales amounted to $8,013.84, with expenses at $1,287.52, giving the League a net profit of $6,726.32.

My deepest thanks go to the entire League, and particularly to my committee for their untiring efforts to make the 1960 Rummage Sale such a success.

Respectfully submitted,
Katherine I. Cox

WAYS AND MEANS

The Ways and Means Committee was activated in January, 1960 to consider possible ways of providing funds to finance the new project of the Junior League of Winston-Salem. The committee members were as follows: Mrs. Fred Bahnson, Mrs. Bert Bennett, Jr., Mrs. C. F. Benbow, Mrs. Bahnson Gray, Mrs. William Lambeth, and Mrs. Louis Owen.

The committee considered projected plans in two categories: a large fund-raising method, anticipated to cover the entire amount of money needed, or several smaller endeavors, requiring a greater participation of interest throughout the membership. A number of possibilities are being considered.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Vaughn Owen

A. Provisional Membership

Provisional members are those who are engaged in complying with the requirements for admission to Active Membership and are not eligible to vote or hold office. Provisional members shall be required to complete a provisional member's course, which shall meet the standards set by the Association and a period of volunteer service satisfactory to the Placement Committee within twelve months after their election to provisional membership. An extension of time may be granted by the Board of Directors in the case of provisionals who for unavoidable reasons are unable to complete the course. Provisionals who have completed these requirements are admitted to active membership by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Directors. Those members failing to meet the provisional requirements shall be dropped from membership by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Directors and may not come up again for membership within two years.

B. Active Membership

Active members are those who have completed the requirements for provisional members and who, having been admitted to active membership, justify such membership through service to their communities. An active member shall enjoy all rights, privileges and obligations of membership until the end of the League Year (which need not be the League's fiscal year) in which she reaches her 40th birthday, provided, however, that any active member who holds a position as an officer or director of a League immediately prior to her 40th birthday, shall be considered an active member for all purposes until the completion of such term as officer or director. They shall perform voluntary service for a period and in a manner satisfactory to the Placement Committee.

No candidate shall be considered whose name has been proposed and voted on four times.

Application for membership shall be received by the Chairman of the Admissions Committee at any time during the year. The deadline for applications for those members to be taken in the following April shall be June 1. Only one blank for each candidate shall be accepted by the Admissions Committee.

Any eligible Active or Sustaining member may propose one candidate and second one candidate during a given year, but no member shall write to the committee in behalf of a candidate. C. Election to Membership

The Chairman shall present the names of proposed candidates to the voting members of the Admissions Committee, and each shall vote by secret ballot. Eight affirmative votes of the Admissions Committee shall qualify a proposed candidate for membership. Invitations shall be mailed immediately to those elected. Before the candidate accepts the invitation, she shall agree to fulfill the duties and obligations of membership. The names of those who accept shall be announced at the April meeting.

An Inter-League member shall continue to be listed as a member of, and shall pay her regular dues to the home League, and the home League shall have final responsibility for her in all matters. An Inter-League card is issued for one year unless extended by the League to which the card is issued. Any extension shall be limited to an additional year. charge such member for special club privileges or for the actual cost of her membership.

Transfer of Members

Provisional, Active, Sustaining and Non-resident members in good standing shall have the right of transferring membership from one League to another except for the period subsequent to March 1 and prior to April 15, when there shall be a transfer moratorium. Members who are in a League special classification may not transfer in such special classification but may transfer only when in a classification recognized by the Association. The right of transfer granted in this section need not extend to a person who has been dropped or expelled from membership by the League to which transfer is desired. Provisional members shall take any additional training required by Leagues to which they transfer. A League may require all active members who are applying for transfer to take an orientation course before their transfers are accepted. A League shall not be required to accept Transfers which exceed twenty-five per cent of all admissions to membership in any one year. If it is necessary for transfers to be put on a waiting list, they shall be accepted in the order in which they apply.

Section 4. Resignations, Dropped Members, Re-instatements

ADMISSIONS POLICIES

(As voted on by the membership for the year 1958-59)

I. Policies pertaining to procedure:

- A. The Admissions Chairman shall hand out with each admissions blank a copy of the Admissions yardstick. She shall explain to each sponsor individually the importance of filling out the blank as fully as possible. She shall emphasize to the sponsor the point that the names listed as friends be close friends, not just acquaintances.

II. Policies pertaining to consideration of a candidate:

- A. The Admissions Committee will take into consideration a candidate's length of residence in Winston-Salem when applying the following by-law: "If a proposed member moves out of the city before the invitation is issued, she may still be invited."
- B. The committee shall consider each candidate on her own merit, not on the merit of her relatives in the League.
- C. Open meetings have not proved satisfactory. It has been an embarrassing situation both for the sponsor and the committee. Designated dates for open meetings shall be announced in the Newssheet and at one League meeting for those who wish to attend. If a sponsor does not appear to speak for her candidate, this does not in any way reflect on the candidate or show lack of interest on the part of the sponsor.

III. Policies pertaining to acceptance:

- A. If a candidate is out of town and unable to take the provisional course, it is not the problem of the Admissions Committee. She should be considered as any other candidate and her problem ironed out by the Provisional Chairman, the President and the girl herself.
- B. An out-of-town candidate will not be expected to have a personal interview with the President and Provisional Chairman, but will be advised of her duties and responsibilities by special letter from the President.
- C. The invitation and letter from the President to an out-of-town candidate shall be sent by registered mail.
- D. It shall be the duty of the Admissions Chairman to contact each sponsor and see to it that she escorts the provisional whom she nominated to the April meeting.
- E. A letter will be mailed to those sponsors whose candidates were not accepted to membership in the Junior League.
- F. In applying the By-Law Article III, Membership, Section 2, C. Election to Membership, which reads as follows: "... In this event, the invitation shall be reissued a second time only upon the request of the candidate's sponsor to the Board of Directors," the Admissions Chairman shall inform the sponsor in time for an application to be sent to the President prior to the board meeting before the March membership meeting.

ASSOCIATION POLICIES BINDING ON ALL LEAGUES

AS REVISED APRIL, 1952

POLICY I — GENERAL

- A. The Association shall act in an advisory capacity to the Leagues except as otherwise stated in the By-Laws or in the policies and standing rules adopted pursuant thereto.
- B. The Association shall have the right to protect the Leagues from action by one League which may adversely affect the program, standing or fund-raising of other Leagues.
- C. The Junior League shall encourage their members to accept the responsibilities of good citizenship and to educate themselves in all legislative, political and governmental movements which affect the life of their communities, their countries and the world, and shall endeavor to stimulate their members to exercise their respective citizenships intelligently.

POLICY II — COOPERATION AND SPONSORSHIP

- A. The Association may participate in, cooperate with or sponsor any organization, movement or program, which in the judgment of the Board of Directors, as represented by a three-quarters affirmative vote of the members of the Board, will further the purpose of the Association. The Board will inform any such organization that active participation by the individual Leagues is optional. The association shall not engage in legislative action.
- B. A Junior League may participate in, cooperate with or sponsor conferences or institutes of other national or international organizations, provided approval has first been obtained from the Association office.
- C. A Junior League may hold or sponsor a group meeting of League members in connection with conferences and institutes of other national or international organizations, provided approval has first been obtained from the Association office.

POLICY III — ACTION

- A. Junior League may take action on a national, international, state or local public question, provided that a study of the specific problems and the legislative or administrative measures involved has been made, and that the action taken by that League is compatible with the stated purpose of the Association and its member Leagues; does not adversely affect any other League; is not contrary to the policies of the Association; and is subject to the following:
 1. Action may be taken on a national or international public question provided the League has first obtained approval from the Board of Directors of the Association, as represented by a three-quarters affirmative vote of the Board of Directors.
 2. Action may be taken on a state public question provided the League consults its Regional Director and follows Association legislative procedures.
 3. Action may be taken on a local public question at the discretion of the League.

POLICY IV — FINANCIAL

- A. The Association shall not act for others as a fund-raising agent.
- B. The Association shall not make financial contributions to individuals, other organizations or agencies. Financial support may be rendered for direct services.

POLICY V — PUBLIC RELATIONS AND PUBLICITY

- A. The Association shall endeavor to protect the name "Junior League" from misuse, and shall take all action which may be advisable to that end.
- B. All references to the Association should be based on accurate facts from current material made available from the Association. This material can be secured from the Regional Directors or the Association office.
- C. Any use of the Junior League name in connection with publicity shall identify the League or Leagues involved.
- D. Any publicity of a Junior League designed to extend beyond its community area must be approved by the Association office.
- E. A Junior League member may publicly identify herself as such only when such identification is in connection with an affiliation or activity compatible with the stated purpose of the Association and its member Leagues and the policies of the Association.

POLICY VI

COMMERCIAL ATTACHMENTS AND MONEY-RAISING

- A. The Association shall not recommend the exclusive use of a specific commercial product for the services of a specific commercial concern.
- B. A Junior League membership list shall not be made available for commercial purposes or for purposes of solicitation.
- C. A Junior League may cooperate with commercial concerns, provided the attachment is consistent with the standards of quality and dignity expressed by the Junior Leagues and the Association, and does not recommend exclusive use of a specific product or concern.
 1. Sponsorship of a Junior League activity by reputable firms is permitted for local broadcast, telecast or other media of communication.
 2. Sponsorship of a Junior League activity by reputable firms on a regional, national or international basis is permitted provided such sponsorship has been approved by the Association office.
 3. Direct selling in a commercial portion of a radio or television program, or in other media of communication, is permitted so long as it is in keeping with the quality of the presentation itself, feature articles in good taste, and does not recommend the exclusive use of a product by the Association, any member League, League member, or person representing the Junior League. Samples of the commercial copy must be submitted for approval by the sponsoring League to the Association office.
- D. A Junior League member may be identified as such in commercial endorsements, only in League publications and/or in connection with League money-raising projects. No Junior League member may be identified as such for personal gain.

Policies VII and VIII embody the "Minimum Standards" which all Leagues require of themselves and each other. Their observance and enforcement are the responsibility of each individual League and its officers. Visiting Board and Staff members are obligated to point out apparent deviations from these standards, but the responsibility for constant self-evaluation rests with the League, not with the Association. These policies should be printed with each League's By-Laws. These are policies as revised April 1952.

POLICY VII — MINIMUM STANDARDS

Each member League shall incorporate in its charter, constitution, or By-Laws, the following material:

- A. A statement of its name, which shall be limited to the words "Junior League of (name of city, town or community in which located)."

- C. A statement that its policies shall be in harmony with the Policies of the Association.
- D. Provisions complying with the requirements of Article II of the By-Laws of the Association. (No other classes of membership shall be permitted; provided, however, that (a) individual Leagues may have a limited number of honorary members, and (b) Leagues which as of April, 1947 had classes, including life members, may continue such classes for their present membership, but shall not admit any additional members thereto).
- E. A requirement that all provisional members shall complete a course which shall meet the standards set by the Association, and shall perform voluntary service for a period and in a manner satisfactory to the Placement Committee.
- F. - G. A requirement for the following committees:

 - 6. A Placement Committee whose function shall be to plan and supervise the League's volunteer service so that the capacities and capabilities of the members of the League may be utilized in ways most valuable to the community.
 - 7. A Public Relations Committee (or chairman).

- I. A requirement that the Board of each League shall present to the membership all proposed major program activities for ratification.

POLICY VIII — MINIMUM STANDARDS

Each League shall send to the Association annually, for evaluation and criticism, an outline of its provisional course as soon as reasonably possible after the completion thereof.

- B. The Placement Committee of each League shall interview all active members at regular intervals in order to plan and supervise their free choice of community service as defined in Policy VII, F, and shall keep as nearly as possible uniform records concerning their activities.
- C. No individual League shall associate itself with nor endorse any welfare or other similar project, program or activity which does not meet accepted standards in its field, or show evidence of working toward such standards.
- D. All money-raising, on the part of individual Leagues, shall be consistent with standards of dignity and good taste and in keeping with the laws and customs of the community.
- E. Each League shall send to the Association annually a copy of its audited annual statement.

Association Procedures Applying To All Leagues

INTER-LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURE

Arranging Inter-League Memberships:

Section 1

Inter-League cards issued pursuant to Article 11-B, Section 2, of the By-Laws, shall be for a term of one year, unless extended by the League to which the card is issued. Any extension shall be limited to an additional year.

Section 2.

The League to which a member is temporarily accredited may charge such member for special club privileges or for the actual cost of her membership.

Section 3.

(a) A member desiring an Inter-League card shall notify the secretary of the League to which she belongs.

(b) The secretary, or other authorized League official, and the treasurer of the League in consultation with the Placement Chairman shall be empowered to determine whether said member is in good standing.

(c) To a member in good standing the League secretary, or other authorized League official, shall issue an Inter-League card; notifying the Association headquarters that such card has been issued; and furnishing to the member the name and address of the secretary of the League to which the member may apply for temporary affiliation, and notifying that secretary about the member.

(d) Inter-League membership shall become effective immediately upon presentation of the Inter-League card to the secretary, or other authorized League officials, of the League with which the member wishes to be temporarily affiliated. This League shall notify the home League within fifteen days of the date the Inter-League card is received.

(e) When the period of Inter-League membership expires, the inter-League card shall be returned to its owner.

(f) Upon return to her home League, an Inter-League member shall return her Inter-League card for cancellation to the secretary, or other authorized League official, who shall notify Association headquarters of the cancellation of the card.

Arranging Transfer of Members:

Section 1.

The corresponding secretary and the treasurer of the League from which a transfer is made shall be responsible for filling in the information regarding the member's record called for by the transfer card supplied by the Association. They shall also certify that the transferring member is in good standing and shall then forward the transfer card to the secretary of the League to which the transfer is made.

Section 2.

Transfers shall be accepted by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee of any League unless the member has no right to transfer under the provisions of Article 11-B, Section 3 of the By-Laws. Transfers shall be accepted in order of application, except that applications of members under 40 may be given precedence over those of sustaining members. Transfers shall become effective upon acceptance. Within 15 days thereafter the secretary of the League to which the transfer has been made shall notify on transfer cards supplied by the Association, the member involved, the treasurer's office at Association headquarters, and the member's former League.

Section 3

A member transferring from one League to another shall become subject to the jurisdiction of the League to which she transfers on the date on which such transfer is accepted.

A League receiving a transferring member may charge such transferring member the actual administrative costs incurred by such League in connection with her transfer.

6 rooms—single occupancy—2 with private baths. Rates $7.00, $9.00 and $10.00 daily plus 5% city tax.

Reservations

In writing for information or to make a reservation, always address Guest Room Hostess, Association of the Junior Leagues of America, Inc., The Waldorf-Astoria, New York 22, New York.

Reservations cannot be accepted more than three months in advance. In case of cancellation, an immediate wire is requested. Cancellations made less than 24 hours in advance will be billed at full rate. This not only protects the Association against loss, but prevents the turning away of members who otherwise could be accommodated.

Reservations received by wire are answered by Western Union collect. Please indicate the name of your League when making reservations.

Since there are so few rooms in the Junior League section, it is only possible to assign the best accommodations when the exact dates of arrival and departure are known in advance. It is often impossible to retain rooms longer than the time specified in the reservation, due to the fact that they are reserved for the very date they are to be vacated.

Registration

8:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. — Upon arrival, please take the West elevators and go directly to the guest room desk in the AJLA office on the 19th floor to register.

9:00 P.M. to 8:00 A.M. — Upon arrival, kindly register at the front desk of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Length of Stay

Because of the great demand for accommodations, it has been found necessary to limit the length of stay to one month each six months.

A.J.L.A. Departure Time 12 noon.

Those retaining their rooms after departure hour will be charged for another day. Due to heavy bookings, we are unable to promise that accommodations always will be assigned immediately upon arrival.

Eligible Guests (other than League members)

Members of immediate families (husbands, children, parents, brothers and sisters) may be accommodated for a period not exceeding two weeks when the League rooms are not otherwise occupied. If accompanied by a League member the period is extended to one month.

Written authorization from a League member is REQUIRED for reservations of members of her family. Members are requested to write AJLA for the necessary form to be filled out in advance of making family reservations. No form is necessary, however, if the member accompanies her family.

Guests other than League members (or their immediate families) may be accommodated only when accompanied by a League member. League members need not request a form in advance when accompanying non-members.

When bringing guests, it is well to send their names in advance. This insures holding of messages and communications received at the hotel previous to arrival.

MEMBERS SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY UNPAID INDEBTEDNESS INCURRED BY GUESTS INTRODUCED BY THEM.

Telephone Connection

The most direct way for your friends to reach you is by calling the Waldorf-Astoria, ELdorado 5-3000, and asking for you by name. If you are out, messages may be left with the Waldorf operator and will be typewritten and sent to your room. The Junior League may be reached through the Waldorf number, or direct at ELdorado 5-4380. We will be glad to give information and render any assistance possible to your friends in reaching you.

Bills

Bills are mailed to guests after their departure unless they prefer to pay before leaving. Only United States Currency, checks on United States Banks or Checks on Canadian Banks payable in American funds can be accepted. CHECKS WILL NOT BE CASHED FOR MEMBERS UNLESS THEY ARE STAYING IN THE HOTEL AS JUNIOR LEAGUE GUESTS.
